

FABRIC SHOPPING IN LONDON

MARYLEBONE
LANE W1
CITY OF WESTMINSTER

DERING
STREET W1
CITY OF WESTMINSTER

OXFORD
STREET W1
CITY OF WESTMINSTER

LIBERTY
LONDON

BERWICK
STREET W1
CITY OF WESTMINSTER

London Borough of Camden
TOWER
STREET WC2

LIBERTY
LONDON

Liberty, Great Marlborough Street
Nearest tube: Oxford Circus

The world famous fabric print does not need any introduction. But here you will find a delicate selection of fabric, buttons and trim. Quite expensive, but worth to visit.

OXFORD
STREET W1
CITY OF WESTMINSTER

John Lewis, 300 Oxford Street
Nearest tube: Oxford Circus

The haberdashery section of John Lewis is not the best - but it is the place to go for thread, needles and other things for sewing. According to this they got a lot.

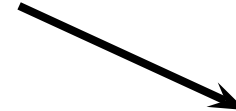

FABRIC SHOPPING IN LONDON

Shephards Bush/Goldhawk Road
Nearest tube: Shephards Bush/Goldhawk Road

If you are fabric shopping in London - you must visit: Goldhawk Road. Here you will find a lot of

In need for silk or wool - this is the place to go. Good prices and fantastic service. They do send samples as well.

Brixton
Nearest tube: Brixton

At Atlantic Road you will find Simple Fabric, with a good selection at a low price. You can also find Atlantic Silks at Electric Avenue. Not the best fabric shop - but you can get a zipper and other things at a fair price.

FABRIC SHOPPING IN LONDON

Mac Culloch & Wallis, Dering Street
Nearest tube: Bond Street/ Oxford Circus

In ground floor you will find fabric and haberdashery at next floor. If you need a zipper in a special pink colour - this is the place to find it.

This is the place London designers and costumiers from theatre come.

Berwick Street

Nearest tube: Oxford Circus/Tottenham Court Road/Piccadilly Circus

You will find a lot of fabric shops, in this street in Soho. For example: The Cloth House, Silk Society, Misan Textile and a lot of others. The prices can be a high. But there is some nice inspiration and beautiful things

The Button Queen, 19 Marybone Lane
Nearest tube: Oxford Circus

If there is a special heaven for buttons - you just found it. Here you will find buttons of all kind.

The London Bead co., 339 Kentish Town Road
Nearest tube: Kentish Town

Here you will find embroidery threads, silk ribbon, beads and Swarovski Crystal Beads. They got a fabric as well but it is mainly the embroidery and beads I find interesting. You can defiantly find all your heart would love.

Walthamstow
Nearest tube: Walthamstow Central

At the northern end of the Victoria tube line you will find the Walthamstow Market. This is a colourful mix of readymade cloth, fruit, people and fabric shops. You can find everything here. The shops behind the market street are a wonderland for stitchers. Here it is possible to buy fabric at a price between £1 and £5 per metre.

Here you will find both good and bad - take a cup of coffee and relax looking at the market life.